Foreword

Time has passed, and another school year has been torn off the calendar. You have made new friends and enriched the old. There have been happy moments and sad ones, carefree moments and tense ones. Each of you has made your memories, and they are recalled as you read this. They cannot be shared with the closest of friends. So keep these memories, yours and only yours, lest you forget your days at L.H.S.

Mr. Jack Pennell

For your skill in teaching biology, your tireless work with athletics, and mainly your ideology, "Better school spirit through personal friendliness," we dedicate this, the 1961 Bearcat, to you.

"If I can see that paramecium, you can see it, too. He isn't swimming that fast!"

Dedication

Honoring...

"You hold the bag, and we'll go run 'em in."

You have spent this past year in a strange land, but with your willingness to enter all activities wholeheartedly and your warm humor you have made this home. Because you have so enriched our lives, we honor you, Foeke, as our Foreign Exchange Student; but most of all we honor you as a friend.

Foeke Jan Dijkstra

All Your Days Are Full
At L.H.S....

*But Moods Gay,
And Sometimes Depressed....*

Faces Happy And Hopeful Places Familiar And Meaningful ...

These Things You Remember

"Those having torches will pass them on to others."

Administration

Any journey requires beforehand preparation and the journey through a year of education is no exception. Responsible for insuring the Lenoir City Schools, including our own L.H.S., of smooth functioning are the seven members of the school board. It is their task to determine needed repairs, changes, and additions, and to secure teachers.

School Board

Mrs. Baxter Trautman, chairman of the School Board, cheerfully confirms the date of the next meeting.

Members of our School Board are first row: Mrs. Baxter S. Trautman, chairman; Dr. Donald W. Lackey, Mr. J. B. Hustan, Jr., and Mr. J. G. Hagaman. Second row: Mr. G. T. Crowell, Mr. C. E. Beach, Mr. Charles E. Dabbin, and Mr. T. Glen Miller, Jr.

Our principal, Mr. Henry McFadyen, is busy with his never-ending tasks.

Principal

Guiding his students and faculty in an obliging and almost paternal manner, Mr. McFadyen is liked and respected by all. He is the mainspring of the busy, complex machinery of L.H.S.

A new member of the L.H.S. staff is Mrs. Turner Nelson, our office secretary.

Before moving to Charlotte last fall, Mrs. M. L. Justice was our well-loved secretary.

Hard at work is Mrs. Lingle, Superintendent Hagan's efficient secretary.

This important-looking gentleman is our superintendent, Mr. J. G. Hagan.

After a decade of devoted service to the Lenoir City Schools, J. G. Hagan remains sincerely interested in Lenoir's youth. His absence from this building these past two years has in no way lessened his attention toward the progress of L.H.S.

The four women responsible for our lunches are Mrs. Carl Honeycutt, Mrs. Inez Rector, Mary Shatley, and Mrs. Stanley Bowers.

Lunchroom Staff

The job of providing us with hot, nourishing meals belongs to the lunchroom staff. We would like to take this opportunity to say "thanks!"

Stanley, one of our custodians, is certainly handy with these tools.

"On the double, Mrs. Honeycutt; I'm starved!"

Custodians

Cold weather makes us realize the important part our faithful custodians play by keeping our building warm, clean, and healthful.

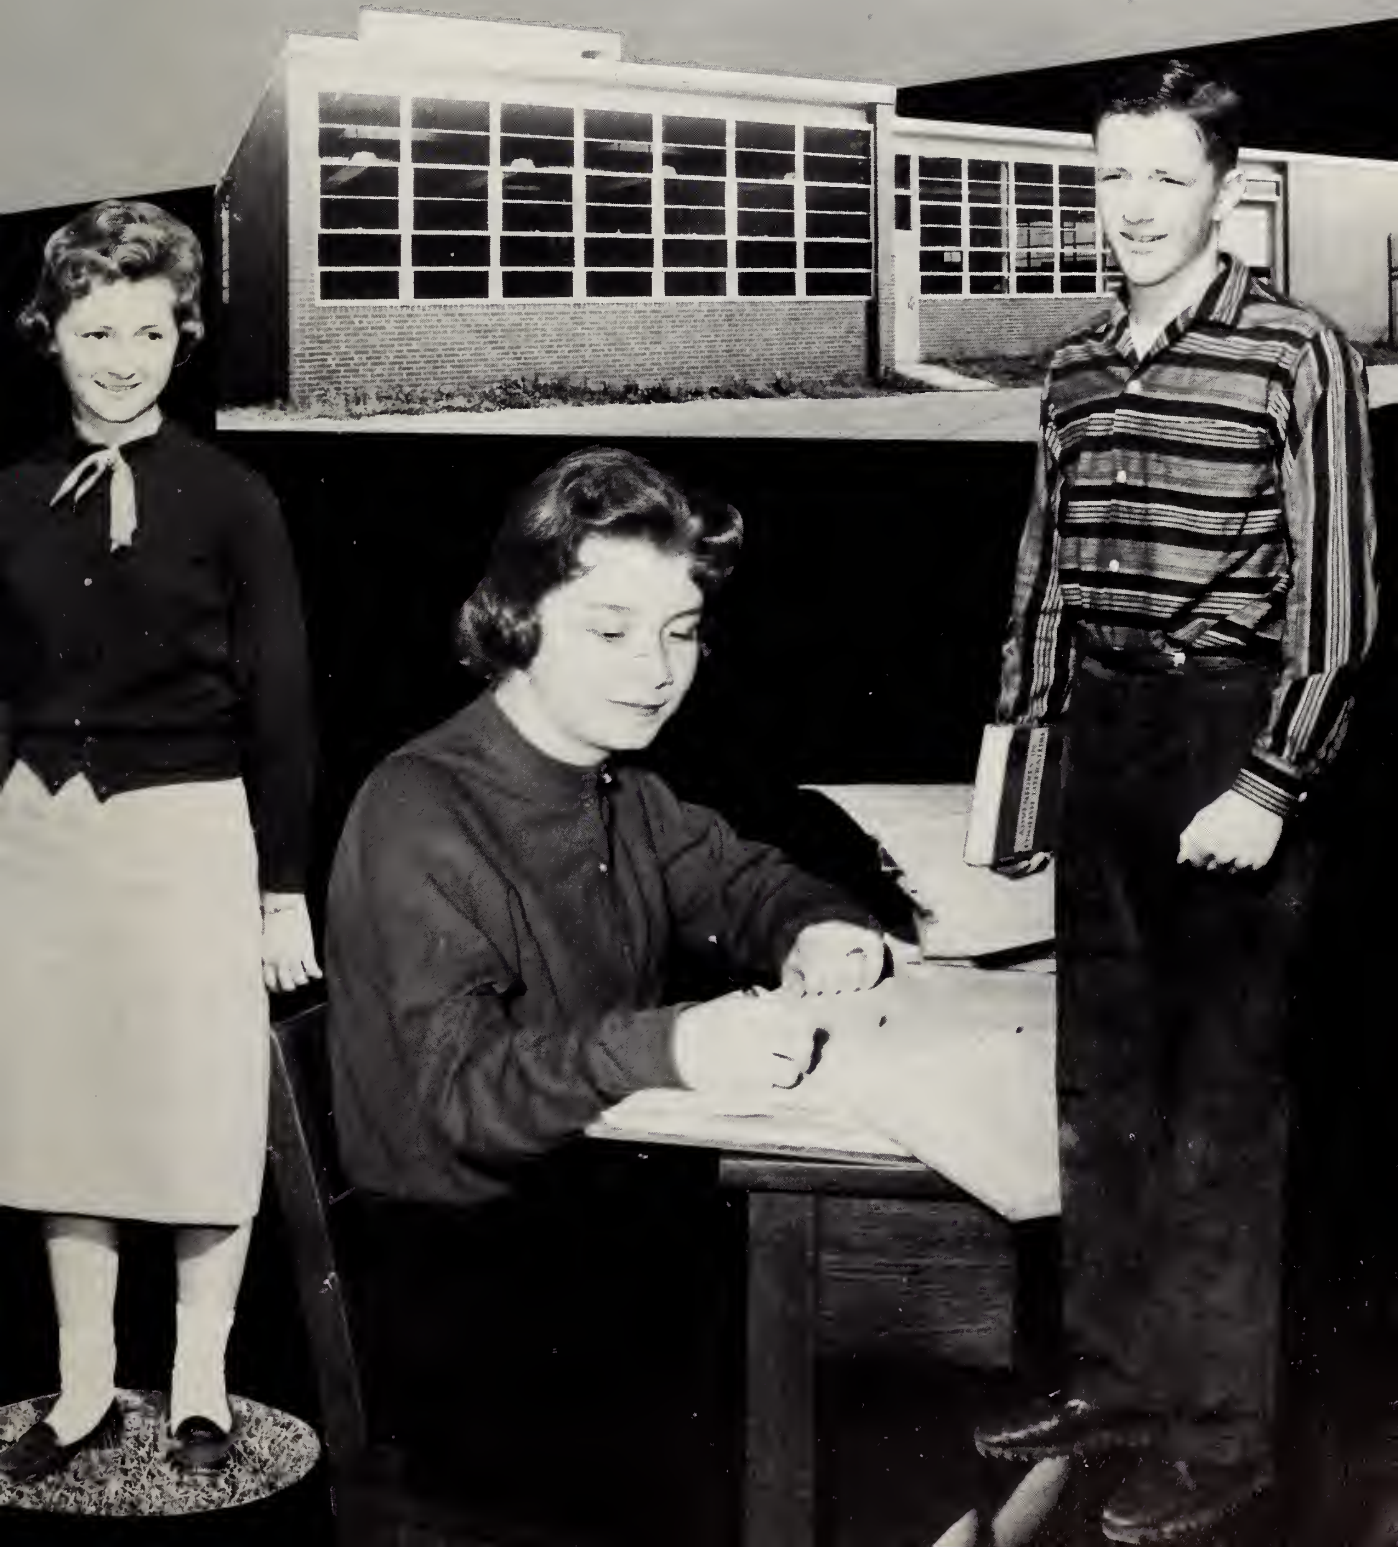

Lenoir High School is kept in good order by our custodians, Stanley Bowers and Raymond Ferguson.

"All the world's a stage and all the men and women merely players."

Getting ready for a busy night at the concession stand are work choirmen Buddy Templeton and Koye Greer, and co-advisers Mrs. Boyd Smith and Mrs. Jones Lipe.

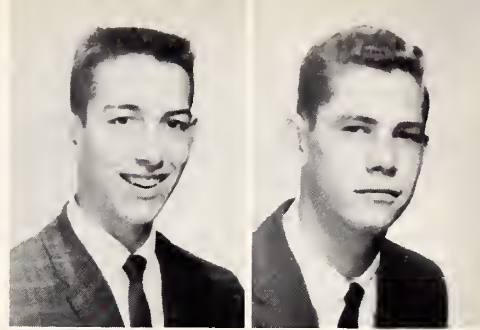

Juniors

After the thrill of finally being upper-classmen wears off, juniors settle down to a year of pleasant responsibilities. Frontic work choirmen brovelly attempt to guide the mod rush of horossed but hoppy helpers in the concession stond. Excitement mounts os class rings are chosen, and even groduotion no longer seems quite so distont and remote. The ultimote challenge to junior abilities is the annual presentotion of the Junior-Senior, which requires ingenious originolity and much hord work to make it "the best one yet."

In Memoriam

Doug Setzer

"God's fingers touch'd him and he slept."

So great a youth was he,
Greater now in memory.
Life for him was not in vain;
One of many, God's soldier named.
His laughter rings, and in our minds
A friend such as he one seldom finds.
In our hearts forever lives
The smile that friendship freely gives.

Sophomores

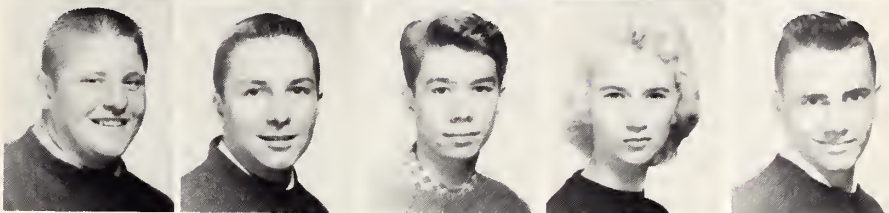

Having survived a trying year of being the most lowly group in the L.H.S. hierarchy, the sophomores find themselves standing on the second rung of high school's ladder. Possessing a familiarity of Lenoir High and having the realization that teachers aren't altogether tyrants give them confidence and ease during their second year at L.H.S. They cast pitying glances at the present freshmen, struggle through biology experiments, and eagerly await their following two years as upperclassmen.

Why, we know what we are doing. We've been studying English for years.

Freshmen

The greenest trickles in the stream of L. H. S. students bear the appropriate title of freshmen. These tenderfeet, immediately discerned from sophomores, juniors, and seniors by their expressions of curiosity and bewilderment, have a traditionally unique ability for losing things and complicating the hallway traffic problems in between-class rushes. The freshmen view before them a pathway of newly fallen, unstained snow along which it is their opportunity to tread, embedding each reflecting footstep with wisdom.

It certainly is easier to concentrate when no one else is around.

"I'll admit that it's not quite accurate, but we can pretend that it's a parallelogram."

Are they deep in study or deep in slumber??

The busy hours of concentrated learning...

"If everyone's playing, who's going to turn the page?"

This program, familiarizing us with the organizations of the U.N., praves youth's interest in world affairs.

"Me type sixty wards per minute! Are you kidding??"

...full of challenges, distractions, and accomplishments.

"Just what I've always wanted to da—chap up carn seeds!"

"Look here, friend. I found this book first, so honds aff."

Time passes all too quickly...

"If we hurry, maybe we can make it back for seconds."

"Ahhh . . . tu estudias espanal! Nosotras tombien."

Certainly Miss Neldo Jayce is one of the mast attractive and paised student teachers at L.H.S. in years af participation in this program.

Here's the inside story, folks: authentic hand-painted togs at a bargain price just made to help display schaal spirit.

...the happy hours of a young life are too soon passed.

National Honor

"I tap you, Ann Spradlin, as a candidate for membership into the Lenoir chapter of the National Honor Society."

Election to the offices of the Honor Society shows keen intellect and ultimate achievement in leadership.
 The five holding these offices are Barry Story, president;
 Sandra Ennis, secretary; Susan Duncan, vice-president;
 Sandra Whitener, treasurer; and Bruce Dalton, chaplain.

New members, Judy Prestwood, Mike Gibbons, Sarah McGee, Ann Spradlin, and Judy Barlow, are welcomed into the Honor Society by its president, Barry Story.

Society

"Now the simplest way to decide who has a speaking part in the initiation is to draw names."

The Lenoir chapter of the National Honor Society strives to lead the student body of Lenoir High School in the highest principles of daily living. The members of the Honor Society are selected not only on the basis of a high scholastic record, but candidates must also exhibit qualities of good character, service, and leadership. These four cardinal points—character, service, leadership, and scholarship—are always held in highest esteem by the Society. Meetings are held regularly once a month, at which time members work and plan for future projects.

Spanish Club

Organized to promote interest in our Latin American neighbors, the Spanish Club is one of the largest and most active organizations at L.H.S. Under the enthusiastic guidance of Mr. Manuel Lorenzo, members strive for the ultimate goal of the Spanish student, learning to converse freely in a foreign language. Sponsoring the annual Sno-Ball dance and supervising initiation week are highlights of the club's activities.

Elected to serve one of the largest clubs in school, the officers of the Spanish Club are Sarah McGee, secretary; Mike Spainhour, vice-president; Jim Rice, president; Steve Sumlin, sergeant-at-arms, and Angela Whitt, treasurer.

Mr. Larenza makes Spanish spontaneous with the ease and vitality of a true specialist.

Bornes, Sarah Halsclow, Wando Kepley, Pat Hilliard, Judy Mikeol, Rebo Wilson, Alice Hightower, Pat Goforth, and Mortho Davis. Third row: Rony Arney, Bill Abel, Ken Goble, Johnny Gibbs, and Tye Bishop.

Future Business Leaders of America

What charming officers the president of the F.B.L.A. will have to work with! Dione Moore, reporter; Brendo Craig, secretary; Pat Goforth, photographer; Johnny Gibbs, president; Wanda Kepley, vice-president; Carolyn Bush, treasurer; and Alice Hightower, secretary.

"Leaders are made, not born." This could accurately be the motto of the F.B.L.A. Tomorrow they will go forth into the business world, but not unprepared. Their experience in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping would make any executive proud to have these talented young leaders. Today they learn; tomorrow they lead.

Engaged in promoting better sportsmanship both on and off the athletic field, Monogram Club members are the most school-spirited students at L.H.S. Playing on a team, managing it, or leading the fans in cheering for it can earn a coveted "L", the mark which identifies club members.

Hm! Who said all boys talked about was football! Monogram Club officers are Eddie Pyatte, secretary; Jim Rice, president; Freddie Lyn Wilson, vice-president; and Barry Story, treasurer.

Sometimes a "simple" pattern can be mighty tough!

Future Homemakers of

Our F.H.A. officers are really going to be pretty homemakers some day! They are First row: Ruth Keyes, treasurer; Sherry Suther, parliamentarian, and Carol Roach, Student Council representative. Second row: Kay Barlowe, secretary; Billie Jo Teague, vice-president; Sharon Kaminsky, president; and Rachel Melton, sang leader.

The F.H.A. organization, under the direction of Mrs. James Lipe, is formed of girls studying home economics. The purpose of the club is to prepare girls for their future roles as homemakers. At monthly meetings in homes of various members, a diversity of programs is given concerning home life. The club sponsors a semi-formal dance each Christmas and a picnic in the spring. Rallies are held once a year at which girls from different schools meet to discuss plans for the coming year.

Let's buy them ready-made from now on!

Who says it's "easy as pie"?

America

Our Future Homemakers of America certainly aren't "homely-looking," are they? First row: Donna Winkler, Barbara Benfield, Ruth Keyes, Sherry Suther, Daryl Brinton, Kaye Greer, Jane Crisp, Rosemary Parsons, Janette Church, Earlene Church, Carol Beach, Nancy Setzer, Diana Holsclaw, Mary Jane Butler, and Carol Roach. Second row: Linda McGee, Kay Barlowe,

Training themselves to mold the lives of the youth of our land, the future teachers of America will soon shoulder part of the awesome responsibility of maintaining a high standard in our nation. Preparing children for the fast-moving pace of the space-bound Seventies will be no easy task.

Qualities that distinguish the future teacher are patience, dependability, and determination. Most of all, they need understanding hearts dedicated to their work. A salute to the students planning for this honorable career, and best wishes for their success!

Hollywood, here we come! Maybe they won't be discovered in a drug-store or driving a truck, but when Mrs. Cobb is finished with them, any Broadway play would be honored by their appearance.

On stage or off, a proposal such as this would thrill any girl who is "Over Fourteen and Single"!

One of the most enjoyable features of Lenoir High School is the Glee Club. It is composed of talented boys and girls representing all four of the classes. Miss Mauk takes the sopranos, altos, tenors, and basses, and blends them in a very harmonious choral group. The students feel that it wouldn't seem right without the "songsters" around to keep things cheerful.

Lift your voices into song, remembering to feel what you sing within yourselves.

L.H.S. can boast one of the oldest bands in the state and one of the finest in the nation. This year marching performances at both home and out-of-town Bearcat games, Davidson's homecoming, the Wake Forest-Maryland game and the Carolina-Virginia game in Charlottesville totaled an exciting football season for "Lenoir's Own." Parades, political rallies, four annual concerts, and preparation for the State Music Contest completed a busy and memorable year for band members, striving as always to maintain the very highest standard of excellence.

Band members warm up for a busy hour of valuable rehearsal.

The beginning of school brings football to L.H.S., and with it the ribbons, yells, pep rallies, victory, defeat, Homecoming, and all the other colorful things connected with the season. This year the Bearcats were second in the conference.

Girls'

Watch closely. Miss Dixon, the girls' basketball coach, is preparing to give pointers to her team captains, Jean Talton and Alice Hightower.

We are trying a new guarding technique—outgrinning our opponents' forwards.

This jump could mean another point on the L.H.S. score.

Playing the only major sport in which they can participate, the girls at L.H.S. take their basketball very seriously. In the preliminary before the boys' games each Tuesday and Friday night, the competition is just as heated as that of the Bearcats. Coach Dixon can be proud of the competitive spirit and the will to win she has instilled in these graceful, agile, young women.

Basketball-

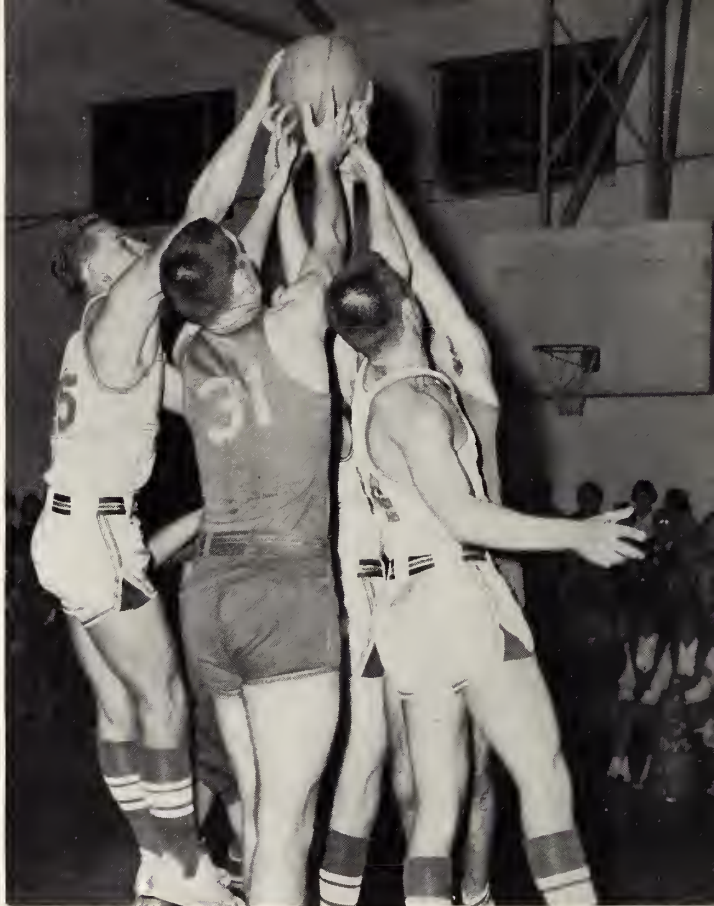

Catch it with your hands, not your mouth!

The Ladycats try far the fast break.

Basketball is one of the most popular sports at L.H.S., and the tall, sure-footed, young men who play this game are usually rewarded for their long hours of practice with a packed house on Tuesday and Friday nights. The thud of the ball on the hardwood and the deafening roar of the crowd are familiar sounds. In a state famous for its basketball, Lenoir teams are annually on or near the top of the conference.

Jump high, Cats, jump high.

Under the backboard an inch is worth a mile.

Basketball

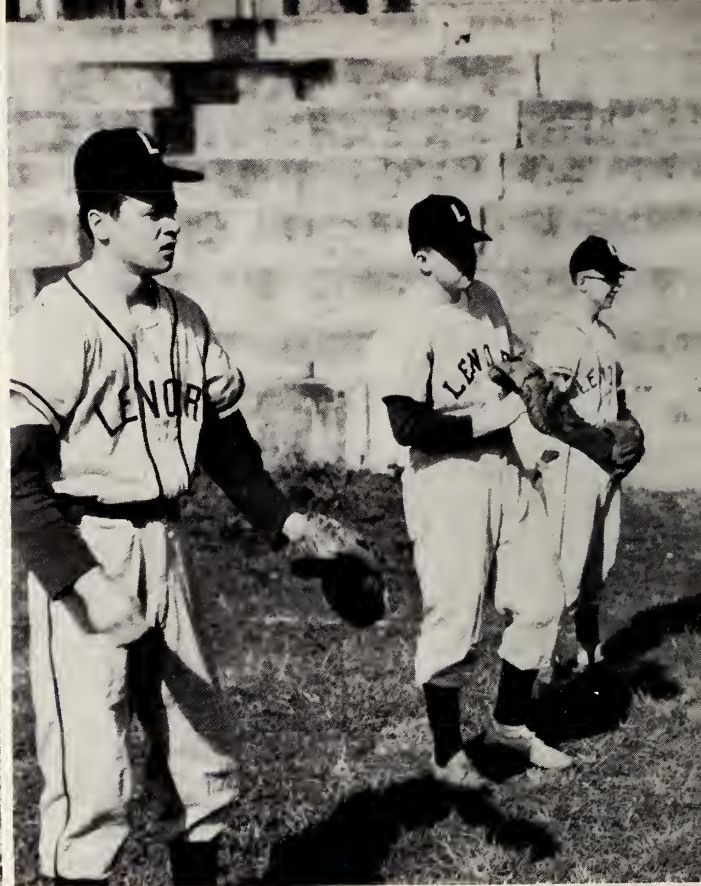

"H-m-m, I believe this boll is o little lopsided."

The rototing coptions of the Beorcots, Andy Torrence, Eddie Pyotte, and Bill Abel, along with Coach Hope, intently view their "cristol" ball for predictions of the night's game.

"Now when you bunt . . ."

"I wish Cooch would look over here; I feel good today."

"Get 'em out once more, and we'll hove it."

Four of Lenoir's hurlers loosen up.

The coming of spring always brings long, hot classes, spring fever; and, on the happier side, baseball to L.H.S. The baseball squad, undaunted by the small seating capacity of the field at Davenport, always puts on a fine show and plays some of the best baseball in the area. In 1960, the boys who play the national pastime, had a 7-1 Northwestern Conference record for a second place spot behind Hickory.

"Curve ball or no curve ball, I'm knocking this out."

The oldest of all sports and yet the youngest at L.H.S., track has caught on like wildfire. In the only sport at L.H.S. in which individuals can win points entirely by themselves, these individuals have been molded into such a real working unit by Coaches Jaynes and Pennell that they were able to win the conference meet championship. Playing the sport of ancient Greeks and Romans, the track team still carries the traditional torch of good sportsmanship which has never been allowed to die.

Cheerleaders

No ball game could be quite complete without our cheerleaders and their enormous megaphone always stored to the brim with ingenious school cheers. These attractive girls, wearing colorful outfits of our traditional school colors, lead the ardent Bearcat boosters as they shout for V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.

Homecoming

What would Homecoming be without the pretty girls and their escorts?

In blue and white splendor, Homecoming, 1960, was unforgettable from the crowning of the queen to the last strain of the "Alma Mater" after the thrill of a 55-7 Bearcat victory.

"I was surprised too!"

Rip 'em up, tear 'em up, eat 'em olive!

The reign of our lovely homecoming Queen begins with the placing of the crown upon her head.

"How will I ever decide which college is the one for me?"

"I've finally made it."

One of the more grotifying moments in the life of one truly dedicated to the enlightenment of youth.

Ah, don't pout; this play is supposed to have a "happy ending."

APPRECIATION

As a lasting record of your '60-61 school year with its hard work and fond memories, we the Bearcat staff present to you the 1961 BEARCAT. For their aid and cooperation in making this annual a reality, we express our gratitude to Mrs. Barnes, our long-suffering typist, the sponsors, photographers, and advertisers. And our special thanks go to our faculty and fellow students who are center features of our 1961 Bearcat.

The Bearcat Staff

Best of Job
from your favorite and best student.
Chuck Carson

Here, the Bearcat . . .
Symbolizing the spirit of L.H.S. . . .
Reminding us ever . . . Lest we forget . . . That memorable year 1960-'61.

Mrs. Jarratt,

I appreciate what you have done for me in the last three years very much. You are a very good English teacher requiring precise work and it has really helped me prepare for college. We have had a few arguments but I consider you a very congenial, warm and friendly person. It has been a real pleasure having you as a teacher.

your friend always,
Bill Eubanks

Mrs. Jarratt,

This year I have enjoyed English much better than in previous years. The reason for this is because you have taught it in a more understanding way. I want to take this opportunity to thank you for all the help you have given to Reba and I. I will remember you always.

Mrs. Jarratt
Thank you so much for your kindness and understanding in helping my committee "do their stuff" for class day. I have really enjoyed English this year with you as my teacher.

Mrs. Jarratt
I have enjoyed being in your English class this year. You have really helped me. I will never forget this year at Lenoir High School.
Thanks so much,
Roy Barlow

Mrs. Jarratt,

Thank you so much for being more than a teacher, but a friend. It has truly been a pleasure being in your classes this year. Your interest in your students has helped me very much. Your understanding attitude and your lovely smile will always capture a spot in my heart and mind.

Thank you for being the lovely person you are.
Judith Jarvis

Mrs. Jarratt,

I have liked being in your study hall very much. I hope I can get you for English in the next three years.

Jimmy Kelly

Mrs. Jarratt,

I sincerely hope that you will have enjoyed this year with me as much as I have enjoyed it with you. You're a wonderful teacher who really puts her heart into her work. I truly admire this quality of yours. Please forgive me for all my shortcomings this year, and I wish you the best of luck in everything. I am,

Mrs. Jarratt,
I have enjoyed being in your class this year.
I'm proud to say you are my favorite teacher.
Best wishes to a wonderful person.
Maretha Davis

Mr. Jarratt,

I have enjoyed having you as a teacher this year.
You are the most understanding person
I know. This year has been one of the best years of my

Linda Short

Mrs. Jarratt,

I've enjoyed being in your study hall. I hope we can get to know each other better in the years that follow. Best wishes to a fine teacher.

Mrs. Garratt,

This year in American has been a challenge for me. whether or not I would be able to do my work satisfactorily besides the many other things I had to do. And I'm glad to say that most of the time, I have succeeded. But only because of the help the teachers have given me and especially you. I'm very grateful for the what you have given me. Not only the books, but also an enrichment of knowledge that I'll never lose. I realize that my knowledge of the language is still far from perfect, but you have made me improve it much, for which I'm very grateful too.

Thank you for the friendly and wonderful personality you've shown this year.

Respectfully yours,
Yvette Jan Reisma

Mrs. Garratt,

I have really enjoyed being in your class this year. I feel that I have learned a great deal of English this year. Best of luck in the future to a wonderful teacher.

Sandra Thaler

Mrs. Garratt,
I have enjoyed being in your study hall this year.
Best wishes

Shirley Anderson

I have enjoyed being in your English class
this year. I hope that I will soon learn to diagram.

Best of luck to a great teacher.

Bob Church

Mrs. Jarratt,
you have been a wonderful inspiration in the Lincoln class. You teacher has been an excellent help to me. Maybe not you a class, but I run your ways like mine.
Dorothy Griffin Lincoln

Mrs. Jarratt,

I have really enjoyed being in two of your classes this year. I've looked forward to them since that play we had in junior high. I hope I haven't disturbed you too much in English. Best wishes to a favorite teacher.

Jane Griffin

I have enjoyed
being in your classes this year.
Thank you.
Dorothy Griffin

Mrs. Jarratt,
Best of luck
to a fine teacher,
Tommy Triplett

Mrs. Jarratt, to thank you for all you've done
to help me this year.
I only hope that I can be a teacher half as good as you.
Best wishes,
Judy Brewster

Mrs. Jarratt;

It has been my pleasure knowing you and being in your classes over these past years. You have been a great help to me since I came back to L. H. S.

I often think back to the years when I was first a member of your study hall. Now I wished I had listened to the advice you gave me. I can only regret I didn't listen and pay attention in my other classes, for I am suffering for it now.

I hope you will always remember the dances we had together at the Jarratts. I'll never forget them.

Take good care of yourself and try to make some of these future "numb-skulled" seniors learn a little if not a lot from school.

Gratfully yours
Dean Wheeler

Best of luck to a very nice teacher.
Linda Smith

Mrs. Jarratt,
We have enjoyed being in your classes this year. I feel that we have learned a lot whether it shows or not.
I hope that your future classes will think as much of you as I do.
Bill Wall

Mrs. Jarratt,
you stood I don't know how year but I do know this I've enjoyed it.
Best wishes.
Jane Zuley

Mrs. Jarratt,
I have truly enjoyed being in your study hall this past year.
I feel that you are one of the nicest people I have ever met. I am really looking forward to the coming years at L. H. S. and feel that they will be very successful.

Mrs. Garratt -
I have truly enjoyed being in your English class this year. You are a very successful teacher and I have greatly appreciated your help and guidance. Best wishes.
Pat Goforth

Mrs. Garratt,
Good luck to you in the coming year. You are a good teacher.
Harry Polly

Mrs. Garratt -
I've enjoyed being in your study hall this year - even if I didn't get to do much talking (a favorite pass-time). I've heard lots of tales about your English classes, and I'm looking forward to next year to see if they're true.

Best wishes to one of the friendliest teachers at L. H. S.
Ernie Mc Crary

Mrs. Garratt -
I have enjoyed being in your study hall this year. I am looking forward to having English under you next year. I have heard you are a real good teacher and I am sure that is true. Best wishes to a real good teacher and nice person.

Respectfully yours,

Mrs. Garratt,
I have enjoyed being in your English class this year. You are a wonderful teacher and I have greatly appreciated your help and guidance. Best wishes.
Pat Goforth

Mrs. Garratt,
It has been so much fun in your study this year. You are a swell teacher & I hope I have you next year. You are also a swell neighbor. Lot of luck & happiness.
Love always,
Sharon

Mrs. Garratt,
I certainly have enjoyed being in your study this year. You are a wonderful teacher and I hope I have you again. Daryl Brinton

Mrs. Jonaco.
I have really enjoyed being in your study this year. It has been a real pleasure having you for my first study hall teacher.
Best wishes,
Quinn and Townsend

Mrs. Garratt,
I have had 3 classes under you this year and have enjoyed every one. Best of luck in years to come. I know with the training you gave me in English, college English will be much simpler.
